RESIDENTS WHO ARE OR WILL BE ON EXCHANGE

Eligible residents WHO ARE on National or International Exchange for the Spring 2016 semester, and who wish to live in one of these residences for the Fall 2016 – Spring 2017 academic year must complete all four steps of the Room Registration Process by the stated deadlines. These residents can complete all four steps of the Registration Process ONLINE, or have a friend or family member complete the steps for them. These residents may register as an individual, with a roommate or as a member of a group. All housing registration policies and deadlines apply to these residents.

Spring 2016 semester residents of one of these residences WHO WILL BE on National or International Exchange for the Fall 2016 semester, who are seeking housing in one of these residences for the Spring 2017 semester, should complete Step 1 and Step 2 of the Registration process. These students may not reserve rooms in advance. They will be assigned to a room on a space available basis and at the discretion of the Department of Housing and Residential Life in January of 2017. They will be provided with their building, room and roommate information during the third week in January 2017. These residents should respond YES to the question, on their Housing Application, for Exchange Students who are seeking Housing for the Spring 2017 semester.

RESIDENTS WITH A DISABILITY OR A SIGNIFICANT MEDICAL CONDITION

The Department of Housing and Residential Life adheres to the University’s policy for providing an accommodation to students who have a documented disability or a significant medical condition. To that end, residents who seek an accommodation or medical adjustment to their housing assignment or to the Room Registration Process must place that request through the University’s Office of Disability Services for Students. To do so, they must contact the Office of Disability Services for Students at dss@etal.uri.edu or 401-874-2098. Additional Information on the request procedure is available at: uri.edu/disability. PLEASE NOTE: The deadline to place a request for a housing accommodation for Fall 2016, to the Office of Disability Services for Students, is March 28, 2016. Note: These eligible residents must have submitted their $200 Housing Deposit and completed their Housing Application by this date.

RESIDENTS WHO WISH TO LIVE IN AN UPPERCALMEN LIVING AND LEARNING COMMUNITY (UC LLC)

Eligible residents of the Residence Halls, Suites or Apartments who would like to reside in the Athletics, Honors, GELS or Sustainability LLC for upperclassmen for the Fall 2016 – Spring 2017 academic year should contact that LLC’s administrative office for information on their registration process. Please note that students who are selected to reside in the Athletics, GELS and Sustainability LLC must pay a $200 non-refundable Housing Deposit and submit a completed Housing Application by 11:59 pm on March 31, 2016 while students who are selected to reside in the Honors LLC must pay a $200 non-refundable Housing Deposit and submit a completed Housing Application by 11:59 pm on the advertised date in March 2016. Both the Housing Deposit and the Housing Application must be submitted ONLINE. Also, those eligible residents who are accepted to reside in one of these LLCs for the Fall 2016 – Spring 2017 academic year, will NOT be allowed to participate in the general Room Selection Process. However, these residents may participate in the Room Change Process which will begin in May 2016. Also, eligible residents who are on Exchange for the Fall 2016 semester cannot reserve a room in their LLC for the Spring 2017 semester. For more information, these residents should review the section in this insert for: Residents Who Are or Will be on Exchange.

SUITES – ALDRICH, BURNSIDE, CODDINGTON, DORR, ELLERY AND HOPKINS HALLS

Total Building Capacity: 200+ residents per building. Cost: Double Room $3811 each resident, per semester. These buildings offer co-ed suites, with three or four double bedrooms for four, six or eight residents that share two private bathrooms and have undergone extensive renovation which began in 2012. Residents can register for many of these suites as a group of four, six or eight residents, who can register for two or three contiguous double rooms respectively, and share one or two bathrooms. These buildings provide a great opportunity for a group of friends to share a semi-private suite of rooms with an adjoining public area. All halls are located adjacent to the Anna Fascitelli Fitness and Wellness Center as well as Mainfare Dining Hall and are also located close to the Burnside Parking Lot and West Alumni Ave Parking Lot. URI parking permit required. Residents of these buildings are required to purchase a University Resident Meal Plan.

SUITES - HEATHMAN

Total Building Capacity: 400+ residents. Cost: Triple Room $3240 each resident, per semester; Double Room $3811 each resident, per semester. These buildings were renovated in 2007 and offer non co-ed suites, with 2 –bedrooms for four, five or six residents sharing one bathroom (please note that the building is co-ed). The specific number of residents per room will be established by the Department of Housing and Residential Life at the time of room selection. These buildings provide a great opportunity for a group of friends to share a private suite of rooms. The hall is located close to the Anna Fascitelli Fitness and Wellness Center as well as Mainfare Dining Hall and is also located close to the Burnside Parking Lot and West Alumni Ave Parking Lot. URI parking permit required. Residents of these buildings are required to purchase a University Resident Meal Plan.

SINGLE ROOMS – ALDRICH, BURNSIDE, CODDINGTON, DORR, ELLERY AND HOPKINS HALLS

Total Building Capacity: 200+ residents per building. Cost: Single $4001 each resident, per semester. These buildings are exclusively for sophomores through 6th-year seniors and offer 102 single bedrooms that share a bathroom with other residents in a suite format. These single rooms are not eligible for group assignment. Each resident may only register for a single room for themselves. These residence halls are located adjacent to the Anna Fascitelli Fitness and Wellness Center, Mainfare Dining Hall and are located close to the Burnside Parking Lot and West Alumni Ave Parking Lot. Residents of these buildings are required to purchase a University resident meal plan.

SINGLE ROOMS – HUTCHINSON, MERROW, PECK AND TUCKER

Total Building Capacity: 125 residents per building. Cost: Single $4001 per resident, per semester. These residences were renovated in 2007 and have traditional corridor style double and single rooms with shared hallway bathrooms. The 84 single bedrooms are available only to upperclassmen as freshmen will reside in the double rooms. For this reason this building is not eligible for group assignment. Each resident may only register for a single room for themselves. All four of these halls are conveniently located across from the library and the Anna Fascitelli Fitness and Wellness Center and next door to the Mainfare Dining Hall. These halls are great for residents looking to meet new friends. Residents of these buildings are required to have a University Resident Meal Plan.

Prices quoted are semester estimates for the 2016-2017 academic year and all residents will be assessed a $128 technology fee per semester.
